

Compass Marketing and The Rockfish Restaurant Present "Rock the Pink", a Benefit Concert and Breast Cancer Awareness Night

Compass Marketing and the Rockfish Restaurant are Passionately Pink for the Cure! John White, Chairman & CEO of Compass Marketing, Inc. and Delegate James King, owner of The Rockfish Restaurant will be hosting a free "Rock the Pink" benefit concert on Sunday, November 2nd, 2008 starting at 8pm with 10% of all restaurant sales going towards the fight against breast cancer.

Breast cancer touches millions of lives and is diagnosed every day in our community. Without a cure, an estimated 25 million women and men will be diagnosed with breast cancer - and more than 10 million could die - over the next 25 years.

This special evening will feature a free concert from world-famous dueling piano player Ronnie Smith and his crew. Ronnie Smith brings a high level of energy and charisma to the stage with his over-the-top attitude toward entertaining. Ronnie's extraordinary vocal range is a perfect compliment to his melodic piano style. His passion for music shines through with every performance.

In addition there will be a raffle with prizes such as a pink iPod Nano®, Passionately Pink T-shirts and merchandise, Rockfish Gift Certificates and more. The Rockfish will also feature a Passionately Pink Martini. Come on out and wear your pink proudly!
